Nadir brings over 20 years of strategic and operational finance leadership skills and experience as a collaborative business partner. Having led global finance and accounting teams with responsibility for P&Ls in the hundreds of millions of dollars, Nadir has helped organizational leaders to ensure strong financial and accounting processes are in place to give confidence and proper visibility to the risks and opportunities in an organization. Additionally, Nadir has worked as a finance business partner across large and complex organizations to help grow revenue, improve profitability, achieve strategic goals, and understand what's happening in the business. Nadir views finance and accounting as a strategic, value generating function, and enjoys seeing the positive impact his abilities can have on teams and organizations.
