Top notch, consistent client service is an expectation, not an option, for Stacy. She spent her entire career in professional services, helping clients solve their problems, always bringing a genuine passion for problem solving.

Stacy joined Growth Operators in 2014. She became our Managing Partner in 2017 and our Senior Managing Partner/ President in 2020, at which time she became a significant equity owner of the business. She is responsible for day-to-day operations of the firm, with a primary focus on recruiting and leading our team of Growth Operators; aligning the right talent from our team to address clients' needs. She works with our leadership team to drive the overall strategic direction of our firm and deliver our clients excellent results.

Prior to joining Growth Operators, Stacy spent 14 years in commercial banking, providing mid-to-large businesses the expertise and capital to grow. She spent most of those years as a Vice President of Commercial Banking at BMO Harris Bank. As a bank and relationship manager, she managed all aspects of her clients' financing issues by underwriting and providing credit for growth and working capital needs, debt refinancing, recapitalizations, mergers, acquisitions, and large capital asset purchases.

"We're only as good as the talent we have on our team. I'm proud our team of Growth Pros not only brings the technical expertise to get the job done efficiently and effectively, but they also bring the professionalism and personality that make them solid-minded, collaborative business professionals to work with. Every time a client sees this in action, I'm
